[REDACTED]

On the above date I, Officer Chris Ottaviani, was assigned to the work the front desk window at the Framingham Police Station.

Around 11:00 in the morning I observed a female, later identified as Lindsey McNamara; walk into the lobby of the police station holding a Dunkin Donuts box in her hands.

Lindsey approached the front desk of the Framingham Police Station as soon as she walked in. When she got to the window I asked her if I could help her.

At this time Lindsey opened the Dunkin Donuts box and grabbed a handful of raw meats out of it. She then stated, "Yea, I'm here to feed the pigs." Lindsey then smeared the meat all over the front window that separates the front lobby from the dispatch area. She then reached in the box again and grabbed another handful of raw meats and smeared them on the same window.

At this time Officer Miller and I went into the lobby and told Lindsey to put her hands behind her back.

Lindsey was cooperative with police at this time. There was no struggle and she did as officer said.

Lindsey was then escorted to the booking area of the station.

I asked Lindsey why she did this. Lindsey stated, "God told me to go feed the pigs."

Lindsey was then placed into cell 18.

The raw meats and the Dunkin Donuts box were taken and logged as evidence.

Officers attempted to clean the front desk as best as possible. Building maintenance will be notified.

Lindsey will be charged with:

Ch. 266 s127- Mal/Mis/ Property under.

Ch. 272 s53- Disorderly conduct.

Norman Miller from The Metrowest Daily News was also in the front lobby of the police station and observed Lindsey's actions.

PES was planning on speaking with Lindsey about this situation.

Respectfully submitted,

Officer Chris Ottaviani 312

Victims: POLICE, FRAMINGHAM		Accused:
Officer Narrative: HENDRY, L CONTINUED INVESTIGATION CASE#1408714 Disorderly Conduct - Mal Mis On Friday, December 26, 2014 at approximately 12:00pm, Detective Lawrence Hendry met with dayshift Commanding Officer Lieutenant Michael Siaba regarding this investigation. Lt. Siaba advised me that an incident occurred within the Framingham Police station front lobby on this date shortly after 11:00am in which a female entered the station lobby and threw raw bacon and sausage at the front lobby glass after entering the station. Lt. Siaba requested I pull video footage from the lobby cameras showing the incident for evidentiary purposes. I went to the area of the police station containing the video system and captured 2 separate video surveillance footages of the police station lobby from the system. The surveillance footages of both videos were captured from 11:00am - 12:00pm on December 26, 2014. The video shows a white female entering the police station at approximately 11:10am with a Dunkin Donuts box. As she enters the station it was observed that a news reporter from the Metrowest Daily News (identified as Norman Miller) was at the front desk main window. Mr. Miller appears to acknowledge someone entering the police station lobby and he is observed moving away and to the side of the main (center) lobby desk area window. The female is then observed to go to the main desk window and then is observed to open the Dunkin Donuts box and grab the content of the box on several occasions and throw the content against the front lobby windows. The video next shows Officers Christian Miller and Chris Ottaviani directly engaging the female in the lobby area where she is placed into custody. It was also observed that Mr. Miller was taking pictures or video with what appeared to be a cellphone camera during the incident with the female at the front desk window.
