SUPPLEMENTAL REPO	RT REFERENCE CASE # 1407246
On Wednesday Octo	ber 29, 2014 I Sgt. Kathryn Esposito	was working a paid detail for Consigli Construc	tion at Logan Express Construction si	te, 1 Worcester Rd. I was assigned to Gate #2 (Burr	St.) I was standing outside this Gate	e waiting for tractor trailer trucks to arrive and ass	ist them as they backed into this gat	e. These trucks were carrying oversized pre-cas	t cement structures for this construc	ction project.
At approximately	15:30 hrs. I observed Harold J. Wolf	e standing across the street on the corner of Ring Rd next to Joe's Bar and American Grill taking photos with a camera aimed at my location. T	here was another male subject standing	ng next to Wolfe. Sgt. Michael Esposito had arre	sted Wolfe earlier in the day at this	s location (see report). Laborer Shop Stewart, Ant	hony Gines then approached my location	on at Gate 2. He became concerned an also alerted me	that Wolfe was back taking photos.
I walked across t	he street towards Wolfe's location. A	As I got closer, I then recognized the second male s	ubject known to me as Jim Rizoli(DOB:	9/9/52). Both turned upon seeing a and walked away t	owards the parking lot closest to DSW	V Shoe Store in Shopper's World. M d around to face me and stopped. I sa	aid hello to Mr. Rizoli and asked h Department. Duri	ng the course of	E our conversa	ation, He told me that I o	_ lid not have to address him as "I	address him as "Mr. Rizoli" but could call him "Jim". I thanked him and said out of respect, I would	respect, I would continue to address him as "Mr. Rizoli". He told me that Wolfe is just crazy. I asked h	im why he would	then get inv	olved. Rizoli stated what	would you do if you were his only fr	iend? I told Mr	r. Rizoli tha	t I did not have any probl	lem with him either and that he shoul	ld advise Wolfe	to stop targ	eting the police and seek	psychiatric help for him. He stated th	hat his arrest t	today was rid	iculous and it would be th	nrown out. Rizoli asked me,"Do you	know the best w	way to handle	Harold?" He then stated t	that we should just ignore him. He f	urther stated th	nat Wolfe hat	es us (the police) and it	all stems from his first arrest.

I explained to M:	r. Rizoli that :	it was again 1	Mr. Wolfe's actions that g	got him arrested the first time and t	first time and that he is his own worst enemy. I explained to Mr. Rizoli that ignoring Wolfe is not the	Wolfe is not the answer. I asked Mr. Rizoli how he would feel if someone (crazy by his own term) stalked him	term) stalked him all day taking videos and pictures of him while he worked. I told Mr.
Rizoli that we we	ere not looking	for revenge	against Wolfe, but if he w	was breaking the law he was going to l	be treated like	anyone else	and be arrested. I stated	that I was concerned about Wolfe's al	l- consuming rad	- ge against th	e police and his bizarre b	oehavior. I then
